EVER since Dr. Wm. M. Giles, of 451 Sixth avenue, extended a frank invitation to owners of lame horses to bring their equine property round to his place of business for free treatment, the corner of Twenty-seventh street and Sixth avenue has come to resemble a horse fair. The Doctor's bold defance, which if thus thrust upon the curious attention of his neighbors, is based on his earnest belief in his Jodide Ammonia Liniment, which is now preferred to all others by the chief stock raisers and sporting men of the country. preferred to all others by the chief stock raisers and sporting men of the country.

A valuable horse of the writer's was kicked on the hock. Swelling and lameness ensued, rendering the animal nearly worthless. We were advised to try Giles' Liniment, and are gratified to say it acted like a charm. About two inches of bone came away, the sore healed up, and the lameness and swelling are fast disappearing.

Max never is, but always to be bleet. So thought a leading citizen of Evansville, Ind., and the reader may be equally fortunate by addressing M. A. Dauphin, P. O. Box 602. New Orleans. But hear this pathetic history: The undersigned certifies that he held for collection for account of M. W. Runges, of Vierling & Runges, Wholesale Druggists, Evansville, Indiana, One-tenth Ticket No. 83,585, Class "F," in the Louisiana State Lottery, which drew the Second Capital Prize of Fifty Thousand Dollars on Tuesday, June 11th, 1378, having cost the sum of One Dollar, and that the amount was promptly paid in a check on the Louisiana National Bank, on presentation of the ticket at the office of the Company.
